Your Business Will Thrive Here!

Old Saybrook is the commercial hub of the central Connecticut Shoreline. Located where the majestic Connecticut River meets the beautiful waters of Long Island Sound, Old Saybrook is where I-95 and Connecticut's Rt. 9 central artery intersect positioning your business to compete in the state, New York, Boston and beyond.

Old Saybrook melds historic New England charm with contemporary lifestyles providing you and your employees with an exceptional work environment.

- The charming and iconic Main Street attracts residents and visitors for shopping, dining, entertainment and recreation.
- The Saybrook Junction Train Station offers Amtrak and Shoreline East Rail service along the Northeast Corridor.
- An exceptional quality of life attracts top talent contributing to our well-educated workforce.

Business Community

Old Saybrook is home to over 1,000 businesses with a mix of industries including bio-med, retail, professional services, R&D, manufacturing, IT, and e-commerce companies.
