REQUESTING A MOORING PERMIT FOR THE WATERS OF OLD SAYBROOK, CONNECTICUT, OTHER THAN NORTH COVE'S DREDGED AREA

- Please complete an application online by visiting the Harbor Management Commission's home page and clicking Apply Online and selecting Flats & Beaches.
- An outhaul is also required to have a permit as it is considered a mooring by the State of Connecticut.
- All mooring holders must indicate where they keep their dinghy.
- Every mooring is to be inspected annually prior to it being placed in the water. If it is currently in the water it must be pulled for inspection.
- The mooring permit fee for the clothesline area, Knollwood, Indiantown, Oyster River, Ferry Point Anchorage as well as for waterfront property owners directly in front of their homes is:

$79.76 ($75.00 & $4.76 tax)
- The mooring permit fee for the flats and the river area outside of North Cove is:

$159.52 ($150 & $9.52 tax)
- Any communication regarding mooring permits, even if you speak to Scott Mitchell, Harbor Master, must be followed up in writing to the Harbor Management Commission.
- Please note, you will also be asked to upload a copy of your CT registration.

In addition to completing an online application and submitting requested items, requesting your permit early is the best way for the inspection and mooring placement to be completed promptly. You must allow approximately 3 weeks for the process.
