

NORTH COVE HISTORIC DISTRICT COMMISSION

Listed below is a brief summary of the actions of the North Cove Historic District Commission of Old Saybrook from July 1, 2001 through June 30, 2002. The Commission met numerous times in the above mentioned year to continue to provide guidance to those homeowners wishing to alter their properties within the district.

The number of applications for Certificate of Appropriateness reviewed totaled six, with the range of requests as follows: one change and repair landscape and patio, one demolition and replacement with new structure, one new construction of a garage and restoration of an existing home, one replacement of overhead garage doors, one construction of a pergola, one installation of wooden lampposts and lanterns.

An election of officers was held in October 2001 and were referred to the Board of Selectmen for approval.
