

Special Education Law & Advocacy Workshop

Speaker: Lawrence Berliner, Special Ed. Law Attorney

Lawrence W. Berliner is the Founder of the Law Office of Lawrence W. Berliner, LLC, a statewide Connecticut law firm with a concentration on special education and disability law. His law practice is located in Guilford, CT and Westport, CT. Attorney Berliner has dedicated his law practice to helping parents pursue their child's educational rights. With 36 years of experience representing children, adults, and families with special needs, he passionately focuses his practice on special education law, disability law, and legal advocacy for individuals with disabilities.

---

Discover what every parent needs to know:

- Your child's basic educational rights
- How to navigate the PPT and create an IEP as a framework for success
- Turning point: what to do when your child is struggling and you need to have a conversation with the school to get support
- School refusal and anxiety issues
- How to re-engage your child in a supportive learning environment
- The role of the lawyer in the special education process

This workshop is free and open to the public.

Please call OSYFS 860-395-3190 to register so we may have enough materials for all attendees.

Date: March 12, 2020

Time: 5:30 p.m.

Old Saybrook Town Hall
1st. floor conference room

---

Support Group for Parents/Caregivers of children diagnosed with Autism Spectrum Disorders

once per month on a Thursday
12:30-2p.m. and 5:30-7

to accommodate all schedules.

Send inquiries to yfs@oldsaybrookct.gov for schedule and to be added to mailing list.