My Fellow Commissioners,

I apologize to my fellow commissioners, to all those present in person or virtually, and to our entire Town, for my conduct during the Police Commission meeting on April 25, 2022. I let my emotions overwhelm me and I said things that were just plain rude and disruptive. If my children behaved that way in school I would make them apologize to their teacher and classmates. As an adult, elected to a vitally important Town office and while serving in that office, I recognize that I must meet a far higher standard of behavior. I know that I must do better, and I will.

Best Regards,

Jessica Calle
