

Saybrook Well Field Aquifer. Non-residential properties that lie totally or partially within the aquifer protection area were required in 2011 to register all activities that potentially could pollute groundwater. Any future land use or business process changes will require a permit from the Old Saybrook Aquifer Protection Agency.

