S. Beckman reported that the owner of Pathway Lighting, Fred Stark, has expressed ongoing frustration with their efforts with Eversource to have a utility pole moved. S. Beckman will talk to the Eversource representative to ask how best to make some progress.

VII. OLD BUSINESS

VIII. ADVISORY GROUP REPORTS

A. ED PoCD update – S. Beckman reported that the plan update is almost completed. The next step is to review section 2 with the Planning Commission at a joint meeting, tentatively planned for February 5.

Marketing: (see staff report)
Arts & Culture: on Feb 12 at 11 am there will be a dedication of the new art hallway installation. One art application has already been received.

IX. NEW BUSINESS

A. STEAP Grant Project Concepts
S. Beckman asked members for ideas for possible grant submissions. Some suggestions are:
- revolving loan fund for facade improvements
- streetscape improvements in specific parts of town
- open up other side of train station for direct pedestrian access into the business park
- signage/planter off exit 66
- something geared toward the TIF district i.e. pedestrian path, sidewalk
- dock improvements, shell fishing
- bike share
- trolley service

X. COMMENTS FROM THE CHAIR

- Parks & Recreation and the Board of Finance had voted to fund a strategic planning process which prioritizes four parks. M. Pugliese would like the EDC to be represented, and be part of the discussion.
- The library is exploring a maker's space. M. Pugliese would like to extend an invitation to the librarian, Amanda Brouwer to talk to the EDC. He noted that a co-working space is one of the tactics in the revised PoCD.
- M. Pugliese brought up the trolley idea and asked if the commission still wants to explore it. S. Beckman is going to speak with the executive director of 9Town Transit to inquire about rental costs and feasibility.
- M. Pugliese will be sending a couple of web site examples to members for review to begin a discussion of how to better organize content on the EDC web site.
XI. ADJOURNMENT
